

New Hampshire Library Association and Vermont Library Association are pleased to offer a one-day workshop

LIBRARY LEADERSHIP

This participatory workshop will focus on the future of libraries and the best practices that will help librarians improve access and services for their patrons.

Facilitated by Maureen Sullivan, president-elect of American Library Association and facilitator of NELLIS
(New England Library Leadership Symposium)

Friday, April 13, 2012

9:30 – 4:30

Coffee & munchies served at 9:00

Howe Library / 13 South Street / Hanover, NH 03755

Members of VLA or NHLA = $20 Non-members = $35

Includes boxed lunch

Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Space is available for 40 Vermont librarians and 40 New Hampshire librarians.

Please mail your registration and payment to your state organization.

See attached registration form.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

Howe Library does not open its doors to the public until 10:00. Since you will be arriving earlier, please use the lower, rear entry which will be unlocked for you.

Parking in Hanover is challenging. We encourage you to carpool and to allow extra time for finding a parking place.

PLEASE DO NOT PARK IN HOWE LIBRARY'S PARKING LOTS. There is a parking garage across the street from the library. The charge for three hours is $2.25. More information may be found here:
