

Questions for library orientation—Cephalonian Method

My knightcard gets me in my dorm and lets me eat and buy stuff—what does it do in the library?

I like to start and end my day in the library—what are the regular hours?

I have a bookcase and no books—how long can I check books out for? What happens if they're overdue?

Do I have to sit by myself here? What if I want to study with a group?

I haven't posted what I had for breakfast yet—can I use the computers in the library to check facebook?

The librarians here are nice and all, but how can I get help with my research paper?

My parents changed the netflix password on me—are there movies I can check out here?

Can I have a pizza delivered here?

Does this library 'shush' people? How quiet do I really have to be here?

Do you have anything that can help me cite the sources I use in my papers?

What's the difference between using the stuff on the library's website vs. just searching google?

What if I want a book or an article & it's not here?

I want to impress my family at thanksgiving with my library research skills—do I have access to the library from off campus?

I want to search the whole library (physical & virtual) at the same time—can I do this?

Can I follow the library on Instagram?

I don't have enough reading to do for class—how do I find books in the library?